

Top Ten Reasons People Don't Have a Comprehensive End-of-Life Plan

You are not alone! If you ask the people you know, many (most?) will tell you they aren't fully prepared for when their time comes. Take a look at the list below, and please click on as many as apply to you. Each link will take you to a web page that will address that particular situation.

1. It's not something I want to think about
2. I don't know where to start
3. I already have a will in another country
4. It doesn't matter - I'll be gone
5. I'll get around to it later
6. It's expensive
7. I don't own enough that it would matter
8. It's complicated and I don't know who I can trust
9. I live by myself and don't have anyone to leave possessions to
10. I am going to live forever

We want to help!! The Chiang Mai Expats Club (CEC) and Payap Lifelong Learning are hosting a four-part series called Prepare for End of Life in Thailand. The program will be held on four Tuesdays in February. Our objective is simple: We want every expat member to have the chance to leave this world with dignity, on their own terms, and to provide for their loved ones in the manner that they desire. This program will help all of you to accomplish this. We hope you will join us. For additional information or to sign up, please click <here>

Like Mom always said...."Don't leave a mess!"
